

World View Creating a Personal Statement

Think about your beliefs around your role as a helping professional from Module Two.

Think about your life experiences both personally and professionally.

Think about your spiritual or religious beliefs.

Think about your education, training, and professional principles.

Create a fluid statement about how you view the world – this will continually change as you grow.
